

David Blakemore

CEO of Trouw Nutrition

A seasoned executive with more than 30 years' experience building and nurturing customer relationships, driving innovation and guiding operations, David Blakemore has established a strong track record of delivering results and building strong teams. David was named Chief Executive Officer of Trouw Nutrition, Nutreco's livestock feed business in 2022.

David has held numerous leadership positions in the livestock and agribusiness sectors. Prior to joining Nutreco, he served as President Animal Nutrition & Health at DSM and as a member of the Nutritional Products Executive Leadership Team and DSM Leadership Team. While at DSM, David led the operational business to deliver record-setting top- and bottom-line results and guided the development and launch of several innovations into the commercial marketplace. He created an ambitious strategy and led an organizational and cultural transformation towards more commercial discipline in the business.

Earlier in his career, David held roles at The Dow Chemical Company, predominantly in the Agro Sciences. He has served in leadership roles in the USA, New Zealand, Latin America, and Switzerland. He earned a bachelor's degree in chemical engineering from Texas Tech University.
