of the Lab sessions at AgriVision

Pauline de Wilde, a graduate of the University of Amsterdam (Strategic Management & Organisation), started her career in Seattle, WA, where she made her dream come true by becoming an actress. She has not left the stage since.

In the Netherlands, she has presented television programmes for Dutch National Television RTL 4: Snowmagazine and

These days, de Wilde combines her economic background with her presenting skills and flair for inspiring large audiences as a moderator and motivational speaker on courage.

'Feel the fear and do it anyway' was the title of the first book that she bought in Seattle and is also the title of her motivational speech/workshop.
