

Saskia Korink

CEO Trouw Nutrition & COO Animal Nutrition, Nutreco

In 2018, Saskia Korink joined Trouw Nutrition in the Netherlands, the animal nutrition division of Nutreco, as Global Innovation Director. In August 2020 Saskia became the CEO of Trouw Nutrition and is currently a member of the Nutreco Executive Leadership Team as COO of Animal Nutrition.

Korink is known for her transformative power of innovation, as well as a keen focus on long-term business growth in innovation, sustainability and people. Her experience in animal feed and animal genetics give her a valuable line of sight across the broader world of food production.

Korink also brings knowledge about the common challenges among peers in the global food and agribusiness, such as maximising the benefits of digitalisation, attracting and retaining talent and ensuring efficient and effective organisational governance.
